

Executive Department
State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, Muffy Davis began ski racing at Sun Valley, Idaho when she was eight years old; and

WHEREAS, Muffy Davis found the strength, will and power to reach her dream of being a ski-racing champion; and

WHEREAS, Muffy Davis went on to win her first Olympic bronze medal in Nagano in 1998, three world cup titles in 2002, and three silver medals at the 2002 Winter Paralympic Games; and

WHEREAS, a ski run on Baldy Mountain in Sun Valley Idaho, where Muffy learned to ski, will be named "Muffy's Medals"; and

WHEREAS, Muffy Davis has been an inspiration to countless numbers of people in Idaho and around the world, proving that one can achieve success through determination;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DIRK KEMPTHORNE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim April 2nd, 2002, to be in Idaho.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this second day of April in the year of our Lord two-thousand and two and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred twenty-sixth and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred twelfth.
